Why Join?

Because Ohio needs you! The dairy goat industry needs you! The youth in our industry need you!

If you've ever owned or ever thought of owning a dairy goat this is the place for you. Educational and informational programs will be offered regularly where you can both learn and share your expertise and experience around dairy goats.

Promotional programs to develop the knowledge base and breeding programs for dairy goats will be another primary focus of this organization where everyone's participation will be needed.

You can never have enough minds and hands to develop and implement fundraising programs and events to support the youth and activities related to dairy goats in and outside of Ohio.

Fellowship and Fun is what MODGA is all about. What better place to share your joys, humor and laughter or to find comfort for your fears and tears than amongst those who share your same passion and commitment to the ever so amazing dairy goat.

Don't have time for meetings!

No one does — that's why we insist this be a place of sharing and fun. All "gatherings" will host a place for education and socializing. Short business meetings may be conducted, but will not be the primary focus. Committees will be formed to conduct the necessary association business outside of the regular monthly gatherings. Still don't have time, that's okay too. Share your thoughts, concerns, ideas and herd information by submitting articles or advertisements to our monthly newsletters.

Why not reward yourself?

If you still can't find the time to reward yourself with the development of a wide database of dairy goat loving friends and neighbors, why not at least reward yourself and other's by sharing in the purpose of this organization with your generous donation or sponsorship of one of it's programs?

Please call or visit our website for more information on how you can reward yourself with the gift of giving.
